

- When starting the experiment a sound sample will be played
- Listen to it carefully
- Click on the little figures representing how you feel on three different scales (Dominance, Arousal and Valence)
- Dominance represents dominated or dominant feelings
- Arousal represents excited or calm feelings
- Valence represents positive or negative feelings
- Once you are done proceed to the next sample

Click on the emotion you feel for the different scales

Go to next sample

